PUBLIC NOTICE.

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 29th August 1961

SUBJECT:—Grant of facilities for importation of commercial samples and advertising material.

No. 100-ITC(PN)/61.—It is notified for general information that the following shall be inserted as sub-para (j) of para 28 of Chapter 4 in the Import Trade Control Hand Book of Rules and Procedure 1961:—

"28(j):—Facilities for importation of commercial samples and advertising material.

The Government of India have acceded to the International Convention to facilitate the importation of commercial samples and advertising materials, which has been incorporated as item 44(5)(a) of the Indian Customs Tariff. Under this item samples of goods which are exempt from import duties under and in accordance with the said International Convention drawn up at Geneva on the 7th November, 1952, are allowed clearance free of duty and without Import Trade Control restrictions. Full details can, however, be ascertained from the Collectors of Customs in India".

K. T. SATARAWALA,

Chief Controller of Imports and Exports
